General Mark W. Clark
The Citadel
Charleston, South Carolina

Dear General Clark:

Upon my return to the office today, I learned that you are having your next meetings in Charleston the 14th, 15th and 16th of this month.

I appreciate that you may well wish to have a meeting among yourselves, but I wanted you to know that in case it could be of any possible service, particularly in dealing with matters we did not have time to cover at our last meeting or other points you may have, we would be very glad to fly down to Charleston and meet with you at your convenience.

If this does not fit into your plans we hope we will have an opportunity to meet with you and the Task Force at such later date as you may desire.

Faithfully yours,
